It is a card game, where you need to out think your opponent and create the best strategy possible. While you are in this game, you are in an endless siege against the Boss. How did you get here? What is your goal? To defeat the worst enemy. No easy task. You will have to make the best of your cards, your strategy and your own ability. You will have to be constantly on the lookout, and you will have to adapt to what happens. Are you ready for the journey ahead? Don't forget your masks! 1 Link: More than 1000 years ago, a great evil rose, engulfed the land of Atelknee and then seeped into the villages of Atelknee. One fine day, the princess of Atelknee decided to hunt this invader with her own hands, protected only by an old-fashioned mana shield. She made her way into the mountains until she came to a clearing. The half-dead trees gave way to stone. A well fed deer leapt gracefully into the air. Below the feet of the deer, an old man with clumps of hair and an enormous nostril could be seen. He kept mumbling something, and his gaze was focused on the mountain. "It is the perfect cover.", said the old man as he smiled at the princess who was looking up at him. "What perfect cover?" she asked. The old man gestured, at the mountainside. "Come up." As the people of Atelknee climb the mountain, they could see two stone towers, one on either side of the road. Their golden plating shone in the morning sun. As they reached the top, they found an old man who was sitting on a golden throne. He smiled at the people of Atelknee and waved. The little people returned his smile. The princess of Atelknee stepped forward. "What is your name?" She asked. "I am the dragon that guards the mountain. You could call me King Krorybnj, if you are willing to fight for my master." "Who is your master?" As King Krorybnj spoke, a figure emerged from one of the towers. It was a beautiful woman in a queenly robe, and a diamond crown on her head. "Say my name, Princess," said the woman. Her words were both sweet and strong, as though she knew everything about them. The princess said, "I will not commit treason by saying her name; to do this would be to commit murder." She bowed to the woman, and while doing so, she said her name aloud. "I am Queen Miraja." King Krorybnj
